People's Emergency Briefing

This summer we have seen the effects of climate change across the UK and Europe.

A new public documentary 'People's Emergency Briefing' presented by Chris Packham sets out to explain the risks and offers credible positive options. The Benefice Eco Team in conjunction with Haxby and Wigginton Methodist Church are offering a free screening at the Methodist Church on 27th August at 7.00 pm. All are welcome. To obtain your free ticket please use the QR code on the posters (or via the benefice website) to direct you to the Eventbrite registration. Parking is limited. Last date for registration is 20th August.

Mustard Seeds (Ladies' Bible Study and Discussion Group) meets on Friday 4th September at 2.30 pm

We will be discussing the 500th anniversary of Tyndale's New Testament.

Eco Church: You are welcome to come along and help us to repurpose our 984 knitted hearts on Thursday 3rd September and 1st October in St Nicholas Church Hall from 2 pm.

Take part or just come for tea and cake.

Some of the hearts will be made into labels which people can write on and hang on a Memory Tree during Advent. Others will be made into fridge magnets to give to our Christmas congregations.

The next Film Night will be on Friday 18th September at 6.30 pm for 7.00 pm in St Nicholas Church Hall.

The film to be shown is 'Hidden Figures', a 2016 film about three female African-American mathematicians who worked at NASA during the 1950s and 1960s.

'Wigginton Recreation Hall – a brief incomplete history 1926 – 2026' by David Geary.

Rev Kathryn has copies available at £3 each. All proceeds to The Fire Fighters Charity.

Pet Fayre and Pet Blessing: Sunday 6th September, 2.00 pm to 3.30 pm, Wigginton Church Car Park
