NOTICES

Big Garden Birdwatch Friday 23rd - Sunday 25th January.

This national event, initiated by the RSPB, invites us to spend an hour recording the birds that land in our gardens, balconies and local open spaces.

Wigginton: A count of birds in St Nicholas churchyard will take place over coffee on Sunday 25th January. Spotters' guides and details about sending in your results are available at the back of church.

Haxby: A count of the birds in St Mary's churchyard can take place at any time during the weekend (23rd - 25th January); everyone is encouraged to spend an hour watching in the rear churchyard. Please record everything that lands - even if that's nothing! The results will provide information about making the churchyard a better habitat in years to come. Guides for spotters and details about sending in your results are available at the back of the church; alternatively return them to Bev for entry online if you are counting at St Mary's church.
